UBA HAWTHORN UPDATED COURSES from September 2010

This symbol ¶ indicates a new course.

All classes continue throughout the year except Short Courses which have course number starting with SH...
NCSH indicates the course has 'No Classes in State School Holidays'. Confirm with your Tutor.

What are FULL-YEAR COURSES, GENERAL COURSES and SHORT COURSES?

Full-year Courses begin in February or March and continue through the whole year. Most Full-year Courses are repeated or continue on from one year to the next.

The General Course classes cover subjects which are difficult to categorise. They are usually Full-year courses and many repeat from year to year. A General Course has a number beginning with GE...

A Short Course, on the other hand, is one which begins anywhere during the year and can have two or more sessions, usually at weekly intervals. A Short Course generally occurs only within one semester and has a Course Number beginning with SH...

Whether any Course is repeated in the following year depends upon its popularity, and on Tutor/Convenor availability.

The Curriculum lists, in order, Short Courses [SH], General [GE] and then other Courses classified by speciality.
